

7 night Chesapeake Bay Cruise

Known as the blue crab capital of the world, the Chesapeake Bay is full of history and culture. Step back in time with a visit to Colonial Williamsburg living history museum, or stroll through the narrow streets of a quaint island and listen for a unique native accent thought to be nearly unchanged since the days of the first English colonists.

Day 1 - Baltimore, MD

Baltimore is bustling with excitement, colonial history and a rejuvenated maritime spirit. Explore this history aboard the decks of celebrated ships and on the cobbled streets of the charming waterfront Inner Harbor, or visit Fort McHenry, where Francis Scott Key was inspired to pen "The Star-Spangled Banner".

Day 2 - Yorktown / Williamsburg, VA

Yorktown is known for its monumental battlefields, authentic colonial homes, and storied past. Discover re-created Continental Army encampments and restored homes from the 1700's, or you may choose to visit Colonial Williamsburg - once the political and economic center of the Virginia Colony.

Day 3 - Crisfield / Tangier Island, VA

Settled in 1608 by Capt. John Smith, the charming island of Tangier retains the customs and appearance of an earlier era. Stroll through the delightful village, abundant with crab shanties, shops and charming homes.

Day 4 - Cambridge, MD

Cambridge boasts a charming historic district, featuring buildings dating from the mid-1700s. The Blackwater National Wildlife Refuge, one of the largest conservation areas in the state of Maryland, is recognized as the best location for viewing wildlife in the entire Chesapeake Bay region.

Day 5 - Oxford, MD

Oxford gained its prominence as a thriving seaport during the colonial era by being mandated as the first and only port of entry on the Eastern Shore. Today, the town invites guests to discover a rich maritime history of shipbuilding and oystering, with houses dating back to the late 1600s and historically fascinating museums.

Day 6 - St. Michaels, MD

Discover scenic St. Michaels, featuring a plethora of charming gift shops and boutiques lining its streets. Experience St. Michaels' rich maritime heritage at the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum, which features ten exhibit buildings and a working boatyard.

Day 7 - Annapolis, MD

This 18th century port preserves its colonial American charm, boasting magnificent architecture and the United States Naval Academy, a national historic landmark. With city streets boasting over 1,300 18th century buildings, Annapolis is often referred to as a "museum without walls".

Day 8 - Baltimore, MD

Welcome back to Baltimore! The memories from your Chesapeake Bay cruise will follow you home and will remind you of a part of America that truly represents 'the land of the free, and the home of the brave.'

Itinerary Subject to Change

Where in the World Travel - call 352-751-0621 for more information

American Star

American Cruise Lines' modern ships, each carrying no more than 150 passengers, are designed to navigate America's inland waterways and rivers, docking in the heart of each port and taking you where larger ships could never go. The ships' spacious public lounges and observation decks are frequented by guests who wish to mingle with friends new and old. American Cruise Lines takes special care in providing the best in service, accommodations, entertainment, and dining, all in an elegant yet comfortable environment. The all-American crew is there to see to all your needs, with the goal of providing you with the most memorable adventure possible.

2012 Departures

Independence

May 12
Oct. 21

American Star

June 2
Oct. 28

American Glory

June 16, 23, 30
Oct. 28

2013 Departures

Independence

May 11
Oct. 20

American Star

June 1, 8
Oct. 27

American Glory

June 8, 15, 22
Oct. 27

Rate Schedule per Person

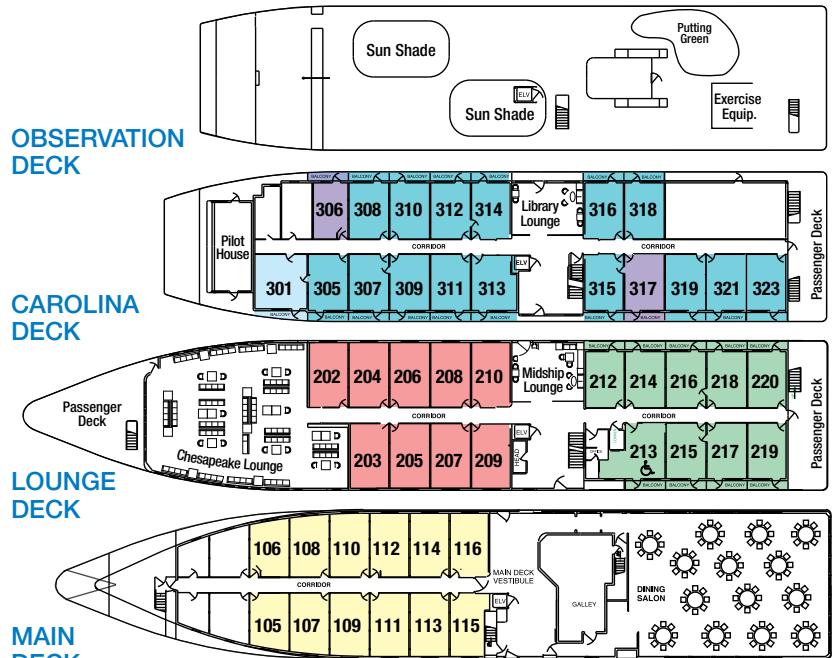

8 Day / 7 Day /
7 Night 6 Night

Category A	$3,595	$3,110
Category AA	$3,980	$3,435
Category AAL (Priv. Balc.)	$4,300	$3,735
Category AAC (Priv. Balc.)	$4,565	$3,950
Owner's Suite (Priv. Balc.)	$6,085	$5,280
Single (Priv. Balc.)	$4,885	$4,205
Single	$4,485	$3,805

Prices & itineraries subject to change.

Call for information
352-751-0621

Category AAC
Category AAL

Single with Private Balcony

Category A
Category AA