PGA Championship Live at Doral

4 Days March 12-15, 2010

Day 1 - Our tour begins with a Motorcoach departing from The Villages at 7:00am. With rest stops enroute to Miami we should arrive at the Doral Country Club by 1:00pm. You will have reserved seats the next three days at The Point, a double-decker, covered pavilion situated on one of the best vantage points on the course. While sitting directly on the 9th Green, it also offers good views of both the 8th and 18th greens. Other benefits that accompany your seats in The Point are televisions, carpeting, floralarrangements, wait staff and nearby luxury restrooms. Plus you receive daily pairing sheets, spectator guides and official programs. At the end of the day our motorcoach will drive you to the Crowne Plaza Hotel beside the Sawgrass Mills Mall. It will serve as your host for the next three nights. A full service hotel with a restaurant and lounge it is also the closest to Sawgrass Mills, within easy walking distance to both the Mall and a number of restaurants. Our hotel offers a free shuttle if you need it.

Day 2 - The bus will depart the hotel early this morning and you will spend a full day at Doral. Those who wish (by advance tee times only) will be able to play a round of golf first in the morning , then relax and watch the Championship in the afternoon. The cost for 18 holes begins at $135 for the Gold Course, $175 for either the White or Silver. Your reserved seats in the The Point also include a Clubhouse & Grounds Pass. You can walk the course, or relax in the Clubhouse. Your entry ticket provides you with wide access to all the excitement and pageantry of this tournament.

Day 3 - Another morning departure from the hotel provides you a chance to again play a round of golf or explore The Blue Monster walking from hole to hole. During each day at this Tournament your seat in the The Point provides great convenience to come and go as you wish. When tired of standing and walking you can return to your seat and you will still see plenty of live golf action. The Point provides great convenience to you by operating a snack bar and a cocktail lounge. You will find an attentive wait staff, private luxury bathrooms, comfortable shaded seats, and televised replay. Everything a golf fan could need.

Day 4 - Return to The Villages
