Golden Isles of Georgia

4 Days November 19-22, 2009

Day 1 - You will arrive in St. Simons, GA and check into the Sea Palms Inn for a four night stay. Tonight you will enjoy a Sandwich & Casino cruise aboard the Emerald Princess.

Day 2 - Features a full day of St. Simons touring. Start with a morning tour aboard the St. Simons Trolley. On this narrative tour, hear 400 years of island history and folklore as you ride along in the Original Vintage Green Trolley. Next, see the Hofwyl-Broadfield Rice Plantation, one of the first rice plantations to thrive in the South. Visit Fort Frederica, once used in the defeat force of the Spanish in 1740 and Christ Church, the second oldest Episcopal Church in Georgia. Visit the St. Simons Light and the Museum of Coastal History and see exhibits on the history of the St. Simons lighthouse and the way of life of a turn-of-the-century lighthouse keeper and his family. The afternoon includes a cruise aboard the Lady Jane Shrimp Boat, experience the life of a shrimper. Tonight, enjoy a traditional Low Country Boil Dinner.

Day 3 - Start with a morning tour of the Darian Fishing Village. An afternoon tour of beautiful Jekyll Island. The island is full of wildlife, consisting of many different mammals and reptiles living in the island's inland marshes. You will visit the restored homes of the Rockefellers and the Goodyears. You will get a chance to experience the finer life with dinner in one of the restored mansions.

Day 4 - Depart for Home.
