Miami -South Beach

3 Days October 6-8, 2009

Day 1 - Travel to Miami. Check into the your deluxe South Beach hotel for a two night stay. Enjoy a narrated walking tour of South Beach's Art Deco District and discover the story behind the style. Miami's Art Deco District is the first 20th-century neighborhood to be recognized by the National Register of Historic Places, with 800 structures of historical significance, most built between 1923 and 1943. The fanciful pastel buildings, with porthole windows, ship-like railings, sleek curves, glass blocks, shiny chrome, and gleaming terrazzo floors are prime eye candy. The tour includes a visit to the Wolfsonian Museum, featuring collection of objects from the modern era (1885-1945) focuses on how art and design shape and reflect the human experience. Tonight features a dinner cruise on Biscayne Bay. Enjoy a fabulous dinner as the sun sets over Miami.

Day 2 - Spend the morning at Bal Harbour Shops. This upscale open-air shopping mall, includes over 50 stores featuring some of the most exclusive luxury collections in the United States such as Gucci, Fendi, Louis Vuitton and many more. Lunch will be on your own at the Bayside Marketplace featuring restaurant favorites Bubba Gump Shrimp Co. and the Hard Rock Cafe and even more great shopping opportunities. A free afternoon and evening to explore the beach, restaurants and nightclubs on your own in South Beach.

Day 3 - Morning tour of the Vizcaya Museum & Gardens. Pass through Vizcaya's lush subtropical forest and approach the Main House along a walkway lined with fountains and foliage. The inside of the house is filled with treasures from around the world including Vizcaya's 1917 pipe organ playing. Outside, you'll enjoy spectacular views of Biscayne Bay, colorful orchids in the David A. Klein Orchidarium, and serene gardens with statues that inhabit them. Lunch will be on own in the Vizcaya Cafe. Afternoon departure for home.
